

ST. ANDREW PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

ANNOUNCEMENTS 9/17/2017

Three church work day and potluck lunch

Saturday, September 30, beginning at 9:00 a.m.

Did you know that God is using 5340 Primrose Lake Circle for three Christian congregations' ministries?

After our worship, the Church of the Nations comes in to do the same.

Tampa Tamil Christian Fellowship follows them.

On 9/30, we will join together in prayer. Then we will work on the building—
we'll organize, clean, inventory, and generally figure out space and what belongs to whom. After our work, we'll join together for a potluck lunch.

It is my prayer that you'll participate in this activity with our Christian brothers and sisters

Adult Sunday School resumes today at 9:30 a.m. We will study John Calvin. This year marks the 500th Anniversary of the Reformation.

Tuesday, 9/19, 7:00 p.m.: Bible Study on prayer led by Jack and Catherine Reed. Books are available in class.

Thursday, 9/21, Trinity Cafe—register on-line at trinitycafe.org, press “volunteer,” then “volunteer sign up Busch”

Thursday, 9/ 28, AMEN meets, which is the men's group for St. Andrew. Details to follow.

Laurie Palmer will attend a stewardship conference in St. Pete from Monday, 9/25-Wednesday, 9/27. The conference is sponsored by the Presbyterian Foundation.
